Support for Families

The holiday season is a time for celebration, however, there can often be expectations which can put added pressures on families and potentially cause stresses and frustrations, including financial pressure, school holidays / childcare, extended families, co-parenting among others. The resources below can support you through these challenges and help support positive relationships with all the family and help reduce parental conflict.

Solihull Approach

These courses have been developed by registered professionals within the NHS, working with practitioners and parents to develop resources to support emotional health and wellbeing in children, families, and adults. Once logged on, the courses are available in a number of different languages. Some courses include:

- Understanding your baby
- Understanding your child: from toddler to teenager
- Understanding your child's mental health wellbeing
- Understanding your relationships
